From the President

Wow! Here we are in our last month of our pulling season. What a great season it has been! The season went very fast and now we are all thinking of Championships. It looks like the Northern Great Lakes Weight Pullers have scheduled a great event! Don't forget to get your meal reservations made in plenty of time. I know how difficult it is to schedule all the meals. Organizers do this for your benefit so please support their efforts. I hope to see everyone at the Championships!

Speaking of Championships, if you have a dog that ends up placing 4th or 5th and you know it has beat one of the medalist, you may want to contact Donna Libbey, Awards Chairperson and just give her a heads up. Please provide her with your dog/s name, the date and pull that they beat one of the medalist. She will need both date and pull to verify the results. The turn around time for the end of the season and the Championships is only 17 days! Donna Libbey has a tuff job to verify the entire medalist list along with the 4th and 5th place dogs in each Region plus mail out your official invitations to compete at the International Championships. Let's all help out if we can to speed the process up.

Have you seen the new commemorative 25th Anniversary T-Shirts? They look great! If you are interested in purchasing them be sure to do it soon. That way you can wear it at the Championships! The T-Shirts will be available by order through the end of the season and the last day of the Championships. They will not be available after that time.

Again, I hope to see everyone at the Championships. If you are able to attend please drive safely getting there!

Best Regard,
Robbie Reed

Coming together is a beginning. Keeping together is a progress..

Congratulations to Mary Johnson and Tim Cunningham for being the organizer/s for our 25th Sanctioned pull this season! They are spotlighted on the following page. Once again Congrats to them both!!!

25th Dog Pull Organizer

Congratulations to the IWPA on their 25th Anniversary. We can not believe that we have hosted 25 events in our area either with the Prairieland Weight Pullers or Heartland Swiss Mountain Dog Club. It has been both a lot of work and a lot of fun and we hope to continue in the future. We have met a great many wonderful dogs and their handlers and learned from both.

Our beginnings with the IWPA were as the result of meeting one of the great handlers/sportsmen in the weight pull world; Bob Bonacorsi from southern Illinois. He saw our breed in the early 1990's and encouraged us to train and compete. Bob saw the potential in the Greater Swiss Mountain Dog and mentored us early on in the sport. Our first participation in an IWPA weight pull was at his home in Illinois. As many of you know, that first time our dog pulls well and you see the light turn on in his head is a thrill for both the handler and the dog.

We have been lucky since then to meet and compete with many great dogs and their handlers throughout the country. Most everyone has been helpful and willing to share their expertise and experience in weight pulling and training.

Our pulls in Region 4 have been well attended and we greatly appreciate the support from the weight pulling community. In addition, we have been fortunate to gain the support of the Wells Pet Food Co., makers of ProPac Dog Food in Monmouth, IL as sponsors for our events. This has been a wonderful relationship for us.

Tim and I enjoy putting on the pulls. As anyone who has organized pulls know, they take a lot of preliminary work as well as all of the work the days of the pull. But in the end when it all comes together it is a lot of fun. We find ourselves watching and cheering not only for our own dogs that are competing but also cheering on and watching the other dogs in competition. There is nothing better than seeing the growth of the dog and handler as a team and seeing that bond develop.

Once again, Congratulations to the IWPA on its 25th Anniversary and here's too many more!

Tim Cunningham and Mary Johnson
