From the President

Well folks here we are into March already. The season is winding down and we are getting down to the nitty gritty.

You will find more information in this newsletter for the IWPA Championships. Please pay close attention to deadlines for reservations and meals. Making these reservations early is a tremendous help to the organizer in planning.

Also take note of the mention of bringing health/shot records on your dogs. Be aware that some states you may cross getting to Championships require these records when traveling. Don't risk getting fined and/or your dog impounded.

One suggestion I would make is something Robbie and I have done for several years. Make a file for each dog you are traveling with. In that file we have shot records, copies of any registration papers, microchip ID numbers, and a picture of the dog. To us this is like an insurance policy. You never know when traveling if something may happen that separates you from your dog. With this file you should have everything you need for identification of the dog if needed.

So make that final push to qualify for the Championships and make your plans early.

See you in Idaho.

Championship Beneficiary
Dogs4Diabetics

Dogs for Diabetics is a charitable, tax-exempt, 501(c)(3) organization dedicated to improving the lives of all insulin-dependent diabetics, empowering individuals, children and families to achieve lifelong successes with their disease. To fulfill this mission, Dogs4Diabetics provides quality medical alert dogs to insulin-dependent diabetics through programs of training, placement, and follow-up services. Dogs4Diabetics strives to set high standards for medical alert service and to be recognized as a organization of dedication, integrity, and service. The organization is a fully accredited member of Assistance Dogs International.

Dogs4Diabetics assistance dogs have been specifically trained to identify, and more importantly, act upon the subtle scent changes that hypoglycemia (low blood glucose) creates in body chemistry—changes undetectable to their human companions.
These dogs play a critical role for their partners in their diabetes management.

This non-profit organization was established and operates to do the following:
☐ Train and certify its dogs for hypoglycemia (low blood glucose) medical alert.
☐ Study and develop training protocols for the Dogs4Diabetics program.
☐ Qualify children and adults with diabetes for placement and service of its dogs.
☐ Train diabetic children and adults for the proper use and care of its dogs.
☐ Conduct placement follow-up services of clients with their diabetic alert dogs..
☐ Educate businesses, organizations and the public to the uses and rights of certified Dogs4Diabetics medical alert dogs.

If you are planning on traveling to Championships be sure to pack Health Records for your dog/s. If your dog is taking or has recently taken any medications be sure to bring a letter from your dog/s vet documenting the medication and that it is or is not performance enhancing. This letter will need to be provided to the Chief Judge at the Championships during weigh in.

Be sure to also pack enough waste bags to clean up after your dog/s during your trip! Not only is it being a responsible pet owner it is also a requirement within the Pulling Rules of the IWPA!

Also don't forget your own medications (prescribed of course) if you take any!

Pulling for dogs

BY EMILY R. COLLINS
Staff Writer

As part of their effort to make life better for dogs, the Mid-Atlantic Weight Pullers are teaming up with Suffolk Animal Control to collect supplies for homeless and abandoned animals.

The group, which hosts and judges dog weight pulling events, is holding a supply drive for Animal Control from now until its weight pull events on January 14th and 15th at 9:30 a.m.

Items are being accepted at Epps Farm Supply on Joshua Road, where the pull will be held.

Debbie Lee, an organizer for the Mid-Atlantic Weight Pullers, said she has wanted to team up with Animal Control for a while.

"I've been wanting to be linked to getting supplies for them, because I grew up in Suffolk and my mother was involved with Animal Control," she said. "I wanted to reach out to the public and give them a way to give back without having to go into the pound."

Lee said she originally wanted to collect money to help Animal Control with its mission, but the city office cannot take monetary donations.

Instead, Animal Control gave the Weight Pullers group a list of things needed to take care of its animals.

Supplies that Animal Control needs include Purina Puppy Chow, any scent of dishwashing liquid, all-purpose cleaners such as Pine-Sol, laundry detergent, bleach, Purina One Lamb and Rice Formula dog food, canned food, cat and kitten food, cat liter, Hartz corn cob bedding, batteries, drawstring trash bags, leashes and collars, towels, dog and cat shampoo and Greenies pill pockets.

"I think they need to reach out to the public for help more often," she said.

Additionally, Lee said, Animal Control officials hope to bring adoptable dogs out to the weight pull.

Fifteen (15) to twenty (20) dogs are expected to show off their strength during the events at the weight pull, she said, noting that weight-pulling is a great way to boost a dog's confidence and get them in shape.

"It builds a stronger foundation for the job and builds a better muscle mass,: she said. It's like doing aerobics for yourself."

The sport is especially good for dog breeds that have bad reputations, because it gives them a job and a way to burn energy.

All breeds are accepted at the weight pull. There's a $15 fee for the first dog and a $10 fee for any additional dogs. Lee said she hopes people come out to support the dogs pulling, as well as the dogs (and cats) at Animal Control.

"My main goal is to get people out there help their pets and support the pound," she said. "Most people are maxed out in the animals we can rescue, but there are other ways we can help."
