From the President:

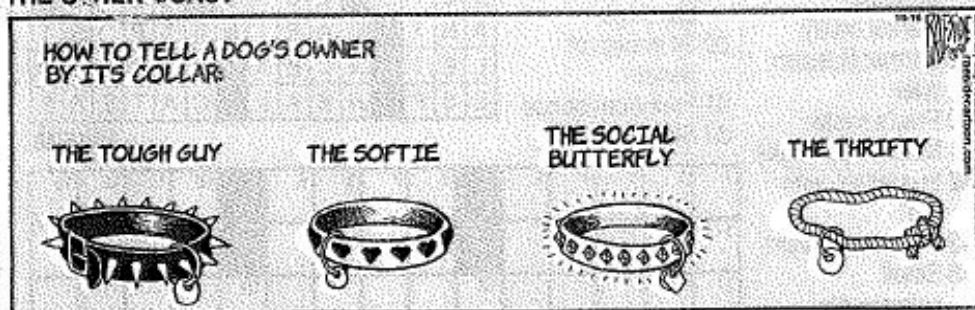

Hope you are all ready for the holidays, as they are definitely upon us now. I wish you all peace and happiness this season. The weather outside can be frightful, so please, I ask that you all be careful.

My thoughts and prayers are with everyone this holiday season. We have had members lose loved ones that will be missed, some have lost so much more. Remember to be kind, you don't know what anyone else might be going through, and the holidays seem to be the hardest times.

And with that thought, I am so very grateful that Jim Galli made it out of the horrible CA fires, with his life. So many others didn't fare so well. The house and items in it is just stuff, and can be replaced, but his life to many of us is worth much more.

As you shop for your 4 legged friends – here are some thoughts on that new collar:

THE OTHER COAST

Or perhaps a new house???

THE OTHER COAST

Remember, Santa is watching so be good!

Happy Holidays everyone, from our house to yours!

Sue

FROM YOUR STATISTICIAN

Sue Ferrari

Hello,

Some organizers are still having issues in trying to fill out their paperwork after a pull. I am begging now. Please, please, Please check it all over, before you send it to me. I wrote a large article for the August newsletter that explained to you exactly what to send me, and what NOT to send me. Which monies go to me, and which do not. I know it was a long article, but it really would like my life easier and your competitors will see their scores sooner on the website.

My life is busy, just like yours and if you would take a few extra minutes to go over what you are sending me, it would make both of our lives easier. When you wonder why things are not posted right away, it is usually because I get started on inputting and then have to stop and wait until I get the answers I need.

Thanks for working with me

She's gone to the dogs.....
Sue Ferrari

OH HOLY NIGHT THE
STARS ARE BRIGHTLY
SHINNING....

WAIT.... MOVEMENT....

OOH.., FALSE ALARM!

BOARD OF DIRECTOR NOMINATION LETTERS

Hello, my name is Jennifer Berning and I am running for a position on next year's board. I am a member of Region 9 and am currently the Awards Chair. I've been involved with the IWPA since I was a kid when every weekend was spent acting as kennel help for my parents as they pulled their dogs! When my husband and I moved our family back to Colorado from overseas five years ago, I was very excited to be able to resume my involvement in a sport that I love and pass the tradition down to my kids. Getting the next generation of handlers involved in and excited about our organization is something that I would love the chance to focus on as a board member, as growth and inclusion are essential to keeping the IWPA going. I look forward to doing my part to meet this goal.

Jennifer Berning

Hello members,

Most of you know me as your Sanctioning Director, Statistician and currently your President. I am Sue Ferrari and am asking for your vote to be on the IWPA Board again for this coming term. I have been a past Vice President, and I have served you all on the board, I've been a judge for many years, and helped host a couple Championships. This is an organization that I feel strongly about, as you can tell by my commitment to this group. When you make for X in the boxes for Board members, please remember that I want to be your voice. Thank you!

Sue Ferrari

I'm Jean Wilson from Region 6. I've been involved with weight pulling since January 2010. I love this sport and the teamwork I've built with my dogs. Even more so, I treasure the friendships I've made along the way and the level of positive sportsmanship I see with this organization. I see the IWPA as a growing entity with new members not only coming on board but becoming judges and organizing events. I'd like to work for you to further the IWPA in growth and represent you, the members. I'd like to continue to be your voice. I've been a judge with the IWPA for a number of years and served for you on the board for the past two years. I have an "open door" policy and encourage members to text, email or call me if they have a suggestion, concern or just have something they'd like to discuss. If I'm not available, I make it a point to connect as soon as I can, typically in less than a day. I'd be honored if I were allowed to represent you again and ask for your vote in the upcoming election.

Jean Wilson – Region 6

My name is Rodney Martin and I have been a member of the IWPA since 2000. I have served on the board in previous years, and have been the membership chair since 2005. As a member of the IWPA, I have sanctioned pulls, put on the 2007 championships with the aid of the members of Region 9, and was previously the Region 9 representative. If voted onto the board of directors, I will always work to keep the integrity of the organization as my first priority. I am proud to serve the IWPA in this capacity.

Rodney Martin

Be sure to watch your mailbox for ballots that will be sent out in early January!!!

Don't delay, fill them out and mail back early to insure that your ballot is received timely!

Pet Safety Tips for the Holidays

By Sheryl Franklin, adapted from PetMD.com and other online articles

Keeping your furry family members safe during the holidays can be challenging. There are the ornaments, plants, presents, lights and the Christmas tree.

Let's take a look at some simple steps of prevention.

Christmas Tree Tips:

- Place your Christmas tree in a corner, blocked off from your pet's wanting eyes. If this doesn't keep your dog or cat from attempting to jump onto the tree, you can place aluminum foil, a plastic drink bottle filled with knick knacks, or anything else that creates noise on the tree's bottom limbs to warn you of an impending tree disaster.
- Tinsel can add a nice sparkling touch to the tree, but make sure you hang it up out of your pet's reach. Ingesting the tinsel can potentially block their intestines, which is generally only remedied through surgical means.
- Do not put lights on the tree's lower branches. Not only can your pet get tangled up in the lights, they can be a burning hazard. Additionally, your dog or cat may inadvertently get shocked by biting through the wire.
- Ornaments need to be kept out of reach, as well. In addition to being a choking and intestinal blockage hazard, shards from broken ornaments may injure paws, mouths, or other parts of your pet's body.
- For those buying a live Christmas trees this year, keep the area free and clear of pine needles. While they may not seem dangerous, the needles can puncture your pet's intestines if ingested.

Other Great Holiday Item Tips:

- Did you know holly, mistletoe, and poinsettia plants are poisonous to dogs or cats? If you normally use these plants to decorate your home, they should be kept in an area your pet cannot reach.
- Edible tree decorations -- whether they be ornaments, or cranberry or popcorn strings -- are like time bombs waiting to happen. These goodies are just too enticing and your pet will surely tug at them, knocking down your wonderfully decorated spruce.
- Burning candles should be placed on high shelves or mantels, out of your pet's way -- there's no telling where a wagging tail may end up. Homes with fireplaces should use screens to avoid accidental burns.
- To prevent any accidental electrocutions, any exposed indoor or outdoor wires should be taped to the wall or the sides of the house.
- When gift wrapping, be sure to keep your pet away. Wrapping paper, string, plastic, or cloth could cause intestinal blockages. Scissors are another hazard, and they should be kept off floors or low tables.
