FROM THE PRESIDENT

Terry Reed

Here it is February already! Just two months left of the season. This is an important time in the IWPA. It's election time. It's your time to be heard. Cast your votes for board members and championship judges.

There is also a General Membership Meeting coming up at the Championships in May. If you are unable to attend the meeting and have something you want discussed, contact someone you know will be there or send me an e-mail so that your opinions and concerns can be brought up.

As we wind down to the end of the season it is very important that you all keep track of your dog's finishes in each event. If you see any discrepancies in points or finish results for your dog notify the statistician as soon as possible. Please don't wait, the sooner things can be corrected or explained the better.

Remember there is a short turn around time between the last day of the season and Championships. In that short turn around time Statistician Sue Ferrari, has to get all the points finalized and forwarded to Awards Chair Donna Libbey. Donna then not only has to put together and mail out invitations to competitors, she also has to send the medals list to the engraver for the medals to be completed.

One thing to be especially aware of is if your dog is in 4th or 5th place and has defeated one of the top three at any time during the season. Don't assume that the Statistician or Awards Chair already know. Help them out and drop them a line with the information. Be sure you let them know your dog's name, the name of the medalist that was defeated and the name and date of the event. This way they can verify it quickly without having to search through the entire season.

During this process I want to remind you that all these people mentioned are volunteers. They all have other things in life to contend with and sometimes IWPA business is not the first priority. Keep this in mind when you need to contact any of them, or any other board member or committee chair. If you leave a message and you don't hear back right away be patient they will get to you.

I look forward to seeing everyone at the Championships.

Terry Reed
IWPA President

From the Elections Chair

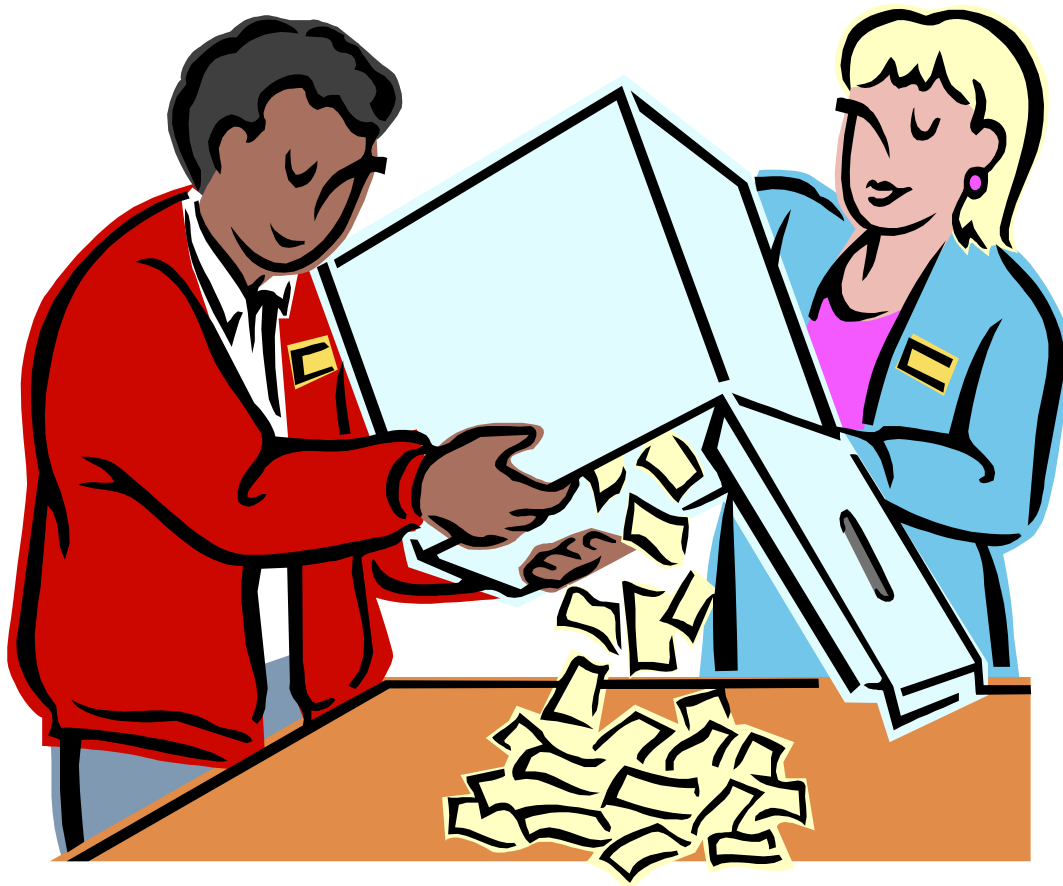

Stephanie Pitz

Just a reminder ballots must be returned to me postmarked no later than February 15th, 2013. If you have not received your ballot please contact me as soon as possible to determine if your membership has voting privileges.

If you want your votes to count be sure to get your ballots returned before the deadline! If they are not your ballots will not be included in the final tally.

Sincerely,

Stephanie Pitz

Watch upcoming issues of the IWPA Pulling Power Newsletter for additional information and itinerary for the 2013 Championships!

Begin planning your trip to attend the 2012-2013 IWPA International Championships! Plan early because if you live in the United States you will need to have time to obtain some form of U.S. Citizenship either by Passport, Nexus Card or Enhanced Driver's License available in some bordering states.

See you in Canada eh!!!

CANADA BORDER SERVICES AGENCY

The following information is from the above website. Please visit this website for additional information in regard to requirements for personal entry including proper identification and declaration of goods.

Importing Domestic Dogs Dogs Eight (8) Months of Age or Older From Countries Not Recognized by Canada as Being Rabies-Free

Import requirements

Dogs may enter Canada if they are accompanied by:
a rabies vaccination certificate.

The rabies vaccination certificate must:

- be written in English or French;
- be issued and signed by a licensed veterinarian;
- identify the animal (as in breed, color, and weight);
- state that the animal is vaccinated against rabies;
- indicate the date of vaccination;
- indicate the trade name and the serial number of the licensed vaccine; and specify the duration of immunity (otherwise, it will be considered valid for one year from the date of vaccination).

Additional Information

Canada does not require a waiting period between the time the animal is vaccinated for rabies and the time the animal is imported into Canada.

If the dog does not meet the import requirements relating to rabies certification, owners will be required, at their own expense, to do the following:

- have the animal vaccinated against rabies within a specified period of time; and provide the vaccination record to a Canadian Food Inspection Agency office.

Importation of Domestic Cats and Dogs - Inspection Fees

Cats and dogs imported into Canada will have a documentary inspection by Canada Border Services Agency (CBSA) to ensure the vaccination is current and the animal description matches. During this visual inspection, CBSA ensures that there is no visible sign of illness. In certain cases, dogs and cats imported will require a Canadian Food Inspection Agency (CFIA) inspection for which CFIA inspection fees apply. The fee must be paid at the time of inspection.

For additional information on CBSA fees please visit their website.

The current fees are:

$30.00 + tax for the first animal in the shipment; and
$5.00 + tax for each additional animal in the shipment.

If the shipment does not meet Canada's import requirements (even if the animal is being imported from the United States), the animal will be ordered to undergo vaccination against rabies within two weeks of its arrival, and the following fees apply:

$55.00 + tax for the first animal in the shipment; and
$30.00 + tax for each additional animal.

Forbidden Chocolate

Seasoned pet lovers know the potentially life-threatening dangers of chocolate, including baker's, semi sweet, milk and dark. In darker chocolates, methylxanthines—caffeine-like stimulants that affect gastrointestinal, neurologic and cardiac function—can cause vomiting/diarrhea, hyperactivity, seizures and an abnormally elevated heart rate. The high-fat content in lighter chocolates can potentially lead to a life-threatening inflammation of the pancreas.

Go ahead and indulge, but don't leave chocolate out for chowhounds to find.

IMS Trading Group Withdraws Chicken Jerky Dog Treats Due to Drug Residue

BY MIKE SAGMAN

January 9, 2013 – IMS Trading Corp has announced it is voluntarily withdrawing its Cadet Brand Chicken Jerky Treat products sold in the United States until further notice.

The Company is taking this action after learning this week the New York State Department of Agriculture and Markets found traces of antibiotic residue in samples of Cadet brand Chicken Jerky Treat products.

These antibiotics are approved for use in poultry in China and other major countries, but are not among those approved in the U.S. According to the company, Cadet Brand Chicken Jerky Treats are safe to feed as directed and have not been linked to any illnesses in dogs or humans.

However, the company claims that...

“...due to regulatory inconsistencies among countries, the presence of antibiotic residue is technically considered an adulteration in the United States.”

At first, New York State authorities requested that IMS Trading Corp remove Cadet Brand Chicken Jerky treats from retail locations only in the state of New York.

Because of this request, the company has decided to conduct a voluntary withdrawal of these chicken treat products nationwide.

According to a statement by IMS Trading Corp...

“A double testing program is being established to check for these antibiotics in China (point of origin) and the United States before we consider to sell these products in the future.

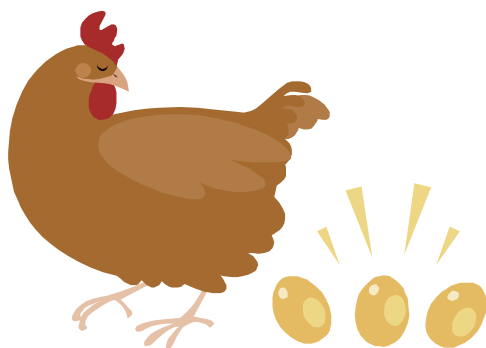

“Testing will be based on a scientifically sound statistical sampling program.”

The announcement goes on to read...

“There is no indication that the trace amounts of antibiotic residue are linked to the FDA’s ongoing investigation of chicken jerky products.

“The trace amounts of antibiotic residue (in the parts-per-billion range) do not pose a health or pet safety risk.”

Milo's Kitchen Recalls Chicken Jerky and Chicken Grillers Dog Treats Due to Drug Residue

BY MIKE SAGMAN

January 9, 2013 – Milo's Kitchen today announced it is voluntarily recalling its Chicken Jerky and Chicken Grillers home-style dog treats from retailer shelves nationally.

No other Milo's Kitchen products are affected.

On Monday, New York State's Department of Agriculture informed the U.S. Food and Drug Administration and the company that trace amounts of residual antibiotics had been found in several lots of Milo's Kitchen Chicken Jerky.

After consultation with the New York Department of Agriculture and the FDA, the company decided to voluntarily recall Milo's Kitchen Chicken Jerky and Chicken Grillers, which are both sourced from the same chicken suppliers.

The use of antibiotics to keep chickens healthy and disease-free while raising them is standard practice in poultry production for both human and pet food. However, the antibiotics found in the products were unapproved and should not be present in the final food product.

Milo's Kitchen has a comprehensive safety testing program in place for its products from procurement through manufacturing and distribution.

Part of that program involves extensive testing for a wide range of substances commonly used to ensure the health of chickens.

However, Milo's Kitchen did not test for all of the specific antibiotics found by the New York Department of Agriculture.

What to Do

The company states:

"Consumers who discard the treats will receive a full refund. We are committed to Milo's Kitchen and stand by our guarantee of complete consumer satisfaction."

Consumers with questions about Milo's Kitchen products can get further information by calling 877-228-6493.

You can report complaints about FDA-regulated pet food products by calling the consumer complaint coordinator in your area. Or go to <http://www.fda.gov/petfoodcomplaints>.
