From the President:

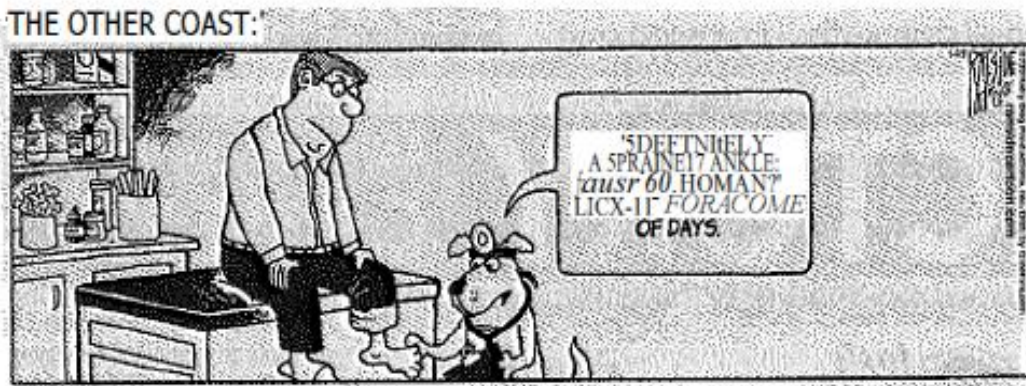

Happy Valentine's Day! Hope it is filled with lots of wet kisses and tail wags. Just remember to keep the chocolate away from your furry friends.

I'm going to ask that each of you look for your "Revised" Ballots and PLEASE vote. This is your opportunity to have a say in how this group runs. Pick the people best qualified in your mind to be on the Board, and to be your Championship Judges. I know, you might have done this once already, but we need to make a revision. And yes, we all are busy, but think of your dogs and remember to take care of this.

I'm starting to see more snow results coming in. I know all of you in the East and Middle East are probably tired of the white stuff. Yet, in Washington and Colorado we are hoping to still get some.

Don't worry though, there will be plenty in April at Estes Park for Championships. Are you crafty at all? Think about starting something to put in for the Silent Auction. It is going to a great cause this year, just like past years.

George has an ankle that is bothering him, so this one is for you dear:

BOARD OF DIRECTOR NOMINATION LETTERS

Hello, my name is Jennifer Berning and I am running for a position on next year's board. I am a member of Region 9 and am currently the Awards Chair. I've been involved with the IWPA since I was a kid when every weekend was spent acting as kennel help for my parents as they pulled their dogs! When my husband and I moved our family back to Colorado from overseas five years ago, I was very excited to be able to resume my involvement in a sport that I love and pass the tradition down to my kids. Getting the next generation of handlers involved in and excited about our organization is something that I would love the chance to focus on as a board member, as growth and inclusion are essential to keeping the IWPA going. I look forward to doing my part to meet this goal.

Jennifer Berning

Hello members,

Most of you know me as your Sanctioning Director, Statistician and currently your President. I am Sue Ferrari and am asking for your vote to be on the IWPA Board again for this coming term. I have been a past Vice President, and I have served you all on the board, I've been a judge for many years, and helped host a couple Championships. This is an organization that I feel strongly about, as you can tell by my commitment to this group. When you make for X in the boxes for Board members, please remember that I want to be your voice. Thank you!

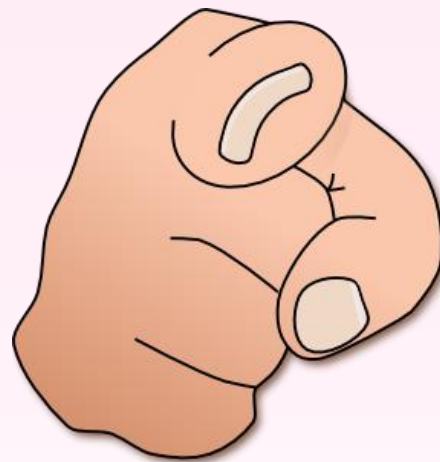

Sue Ferrari

I'm Jean Wilson from Region 6. I've been involved with weight pulling since January 2010. I love this sport and the teamwork I've built with my dogs. Even more so, I treasure the friendships I've made along the way and the level of positive sportsmanship I see with this organization. I see the IWPA as a growing entity with new members not only coming on board but becoming judges and organizing events. I'd like to work for you to further the IWPA in growth and represent you, the members. I'd like to continue to be your voice. I've been a judge with the IWPA for a number of years and served for you on the board for the past two years. I have an "open door" policy and encourage members to text, email or call me if they have a suggestion, concern or just have something they'd like to discuss. If I'm not available, I make it a point to connect as soon as I can, typically in less than a day. I'd be honored if I were allowed to represent you again and ask for your vote in the upcoming election.

My name is Rodney Martin and I have been a member of the IWPA since 2000. I have served on the board in previous years, and have been the membership chair since 2005. As a member of the IWPA, I have sanctioned pulls, put on the 2007 championships with the aid of the members of Region 9, and was previously the Region 9 representative. If voted onto the board of directors, I will always work to keep the integrity of the organization as my first priority. I am proud to serve the IWPA in this capacity.

Rodney Martin

YOUR VOTE IS IMPORTANT!

Watch your USPS mail box for REVISED ballots! They should be delivered soon or within a few days past this date. Be sure to fill them out and mail back in a timely fashion or your vote may not count!

Your ballot must be RECEIVED by February 15th!!!

PULL RESULTS

December in Baxter

Baxter, Tennessee (1196 Bloomington Rd)

Pull: 41 -- Organizer(s): Franklin, Sheryl Wheel on Natural Region: 7

Track: Short soggy grass, mushy and muddy Date: 16-Dec-18

Weather: Foggy, misting, mid 40's Day 1 of 1

Novice class of 6. Young with at least 2 moving pro later this season. Two pulling pro next month. One was 2 weeks shy of turning 1 - but pulling with other organizations. He's a beast. The other turning pro just wanted to try out wheels, has been pulling rails for a few months. The tenor of our welcoming groups is encouraging more participation from the Chattanooga area.

We have locals that walk their dogs here everyday, so we have to make off an area with signs "no Non-competitive Dogs here". We have the use of real bathrooms & a warm building for the humans. Great parking and holding area.

Lawn Chemicals And Cancer In Dogs

By Sheryl Franklin (adapted from several online articles)

Spring is around the corner, time to think about our lawns and yards.

Do you have pets but still crave a lush green lawn? Be careful how you go about it.

A newly published study (Abstract of Environmental Health 112(1): 171-6 (Jan. 2012), shows a link between lawn chemicals and cancer in dogs. In the study, researchers identified 263 dogs with biopsy-confirmed canine malignant lymphoma (CML), 240 dogs with benign tumors, and 230 dogs undergoing surgeries unrelated to cancer. Then, they asked the pet owners to complete a 10-page questionnaire.

Scientists found that dogs with malignant lymphoma were 70 percent more likely to live in a home where professionally applied lawn pesticides had been used. Dogs with serious malignancy were also 170 percent more likely to come from homes where owners used chemical insecticides.

"In a pilot study, we noticed that dogs' glyphosate levels were, on average, 50 times higher than people's," said Dr. John Fagan, chief scientist at HRI Labs and former researcher at the National Institutes of Health. "Recent biomedical research suggests harm to health at these levels, and even lower," he added.

To follow up on the pilot study, HRI Labs has launched a citizen science research project whereby the lab will work with pet owners to determine why animals have such a high exposure to glyphosate.

The project, launched on Tuesday, May 8, 2018 aims to identify the primary route by which pets are exposed to the weed killer. The outcome is expected to give pet owners the information they need to protect their loved ones from a potentially deadly toxin—one that has already been found in disturbingly high levels in dogs.

Pets may be more vulnerable to toxins because they are lower to the ground, have unprotected paws and may eat foods laced with glyphosate, says Dr. Karen Becker, a veterinarian known for her Healthy Pets blog.

Pet owners throughout North America can participate in the study by requesting a collection kit, sending a sample of their pet's urine to HRI Labs and completing an online survey about their pet's diet, health and lifestyle.

Studies Link Lawn Chemicals to Canine Cancer

New research suggests that exposure to pesticides may affect canines similarly to how it affects humans. Scientists have increasingly been able to link lawn chemicals, particularly 2,4-D, to canine cancer.

"Studies found that lawn chemicals travel to neighboring yards and inside homes, and chemicals have been found in the urine of dogs whose owners did not spray their lawns," reports Think About Now.

"Chemicals were detected in the urine of dogs in 14 of 25 households before lawn treatment, in 19 of 25 households after lawn treatment, and in 4 of 8 untreated households. Chemicals were commonly detected in grass residues from treated lawns, and from untreated lawns suggesting chemical drift from nearby treated areas."

A six year study by Tufts University School of Veterinary Medicine reported a 70 percent higher risk of canine malignant lymphoma (CML) in dogs exposed to professionally applied pesticides.

Other studies have also linked herbicides containing 2,4-D to CML, which is reported to have "a similar histology and epidemiology" as non-Hodgkin lymphoma—also linked to 2,4-D exposure.

Even at low concentrations, Roundup and glyphosate are linked to myriad health problems, including everything from kidney disease to birth defects to cancer.

Recent reports say glyphosate may alter the human microbiome—a complex ecosystem made up of microorganisms that control a range of important processes including immune system function and brain health and at levels considered "safe" by the U.S. EPA.

If glyphosate is capable of wreaking this much havoc on human health, then what impact is it having on the health of our pets?

The scientists at HRI Labs aim to find out.

"The citizen science movement makes it possible to carry out rigorous scientific research on topics that are not necessarily of interest to corporations and government agencies that typically fund most research," HRI Labs stated.

Still want a green lawn without the chemicals? Here are some safe and organic lawn care tips from Leah Zerbe of Rodale:

- If you're tempted to coat your lawn with chemical fertilizers to give your grass a boost before guests arrive, don't. For non-toxic lawn nourishment, broadcast one-eighth to one-quarter of an inch of high-quality compost over your lawn using a shovel. Compost nourishes beneficial soil microbes and doesn't contain harsh salts the way many chemical fertilizers do, and you could see some improvement in just a few days.
- Instead of reaching for Roundup or other harmful synthetic pesticides to kill weeds creeping up through sidewalk or driveway cracks, try using BurnOut, an organic weed killer made of food-grade vinegar and clove oil. Just be sure to spray it directly on weeds on a warm, sunny day for the best effect. You can also use BurnOut to quickly and organically kill weeds in the yard; however, it will temporarily leave a brown spot, and you'll need to reseed the area to shade out new weed growth. (You might want to save that project for after your guests leave.)

Smallwood recommends reseeding with Pearl's Premium grass seed. It thrives without chemicals, and once established, you don't ever have to water it.

It's also wise to avoid cocoa bean shell mulch in your gardens—it's potentially toxic to pooches.

You can have a green lawn and healthy pets at the same time. Just make sure you avoid the chemicals!

Hill's Prescription Diet and Science Diet Dog Food Recall

January 31, 2019 — Hill's Pet Nutrition is voluntarily recalling select canned dog food products due to potentially elevated levels of vitamin D.

Vitamin D, when consumed at very high levels, can lead to serious health issues in dogs including kidney dysfunction.

What's Recalled?

The following products and lot numbers are affected by the recall.

About Excessive Levels of Vitamin D

While vitamin D is an essential nutrient for dogs, ingestion of elevated levels can lead to potential health issues depending on the level of vitamin D and the length of exposure.

Dogs may exhibit symptoms such as vomiting, loss of appetite, increased thirst, increased urination, excessive drooling, and weight loss.

Pet parents with dogs who have consumed any of the products listed and are exhibiting any of these signs should contact their veterinarian.

In most cases, complete recovery is expected after discontinuation of feeding.

Where Were the Products Sold?

In the United States, the affected canned dog foods were distributed through retail pet stores and veterinary clinics nationwide.

No dry foods, cat foods, or treats are affected.

Message from the Company

Hill's Pet Nutrition learned of the potential for elevated vitamin D levels in some of our canned dog foods after receiving a complaint in the United States about a dog exhibiting signs of elevated vitamin D levels.

Our investigation confirmed elevated levels of vitamin D due to a supplier error.

We care deeply about all pets and are committed to providing pet parents with safe and high quality products.

Hill's has identified and isolated the error and, to prevent this from happening again, we have required our supplier to implement additional quality testing prior to their release of ingredients.

In addition to our existing safety processes, we are adding our own further testing of incoming ingredients.

This voluntary recall only impacts canned dog food and primarily in the United States.

It is being conducted in cooperation with the U.S. Food and Drug Administration.

What to Do?

Pet parents who purchased the product with the specific lot/date codes listed should discontinue feeding and dispose those products immediately.

To have discarded products replaced at no cost or for further information...

Please contact Hill's Pet Nutrition, Inc. at 800-445-5777 Monday-Friday 9 AM to 5 PM (CST) or at contactus@hillspet.com.

Information can also be found at:

www.hillspet.com/productlist

Impacted products outside of the United States will be subject to separate notices on the country-specific website.

If you are outside of the United States, please check your own country's Hill's website for more information.

Woody's Pet Food Deli Raw Food Recall

January 28, 2019 — The Minnesota Department of Agriculture is notifying consumers of a recall of raw turkey pet food from Woody's Pet Food Deli due to Salmonella contamination.

This recall was issued after product samples collected by the MDA tested positive for Salmonella.

What's Being Recalled?

The recalled product was sold in 5-pound plastic containers labeled "Woody's Pet Food Deli Raw Free Range Turkey" and can be identified by the white date sticker on the cover of the pet food container.

The product was sold at Woody's Pet Food Deli locations in Minneapolis, St. Paul and Woodbury.

The following three lots of product are being recalled:

- Woody's Pet Food Deli Raw Free Range Turkey
Use by date: 01/10/20
- Woody's Pet Food Deli Raw Free Range Turkey
Use by date: 01/12/20
- Woody's Pet Food Deli Raw Free Range Turkey
Use by date: 01/15/20

No other lots of Woody's Pet Food Deli products are affected by the recall.

What Caused the Recall?

Sampling was begun after the Minnesota Department of Health (MDH) identified a human case of Salmonella linked to the pet food.

The person with Salmonella infection was identified as part of an ongoing, multistate investigation of Salmonella Reading infections coordinated by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC).

MDH's interview of the person revealed that Woody's Pet Deli raw ground turkey pet food was regularly fed to a pet in the household.

The pet also tested positive for Salmonella, but not the outbreak strain.

In February 2018, MDA and MDH investigated two other cases of Salmonella Reading that matched the outbreak strain and were linked to raw ground turkey pet food from a different manufacturer.

What to Do?

If you have recalled product in your home, you should throw it out or return it to a Woody's Pet Food Deli for a full refund.

Do not feed the contaminated product to pets.

Consumers with questions can contact the Woody's Pet Food Deli stores directly at the following phone numbers:

- Minneapolis: 612-208-0335
- St. Paul: 651-493-7269
- Woodbury: 651-340-8678

Or by email at info@woodyspetdeli.com.
