FROM THE PRESIDENT

Terry Reed

Well here it is February all ready. We are quickly approaching the end of the season.

You should have received your ballots by now. Please take the time to vote for board members and Championship Judges.

On the subject of Championships. Look for information in this newsletter. Also as always be sure your dogs name is listed consistently at all events. If you find a discrepancy in your points, contact IWPA Statistician Jean Wilson right away to get it corrected.

Terry Reed

IWPA President

Together we can build a better IWPA

FROM STATISTICIAN

Jean Wilson

TO ORGANIZERS AND MEMBERS: If you've not been doing so, PLEASE start checking your pulls! Make sure your name and your dogs' names are documented correctly. Check your points and standings. Some of the results and reports I've been receiving have information misspelled, and/or spelled differently on several different documents, etc. Don't wait until the last minute of the season to find something that needs correcting. If you see something that looks amiss, let me or your organizer know ASAP so we can make any necessary corrections. Thanks!

BOARD NOMINATIONS

Hello IWPA Members,

I'm Diane Krupski, from Michigan Region 6. I've been a member in this organization since 1998! I know seems like a lifetime! I have truly enjoyed this club. I have served on this board before, as well as now. I have loved making friends far and near along the way. Please consider me again to serve you and let your voices be heard.

Thanks for reading,
Diane Krupski

Hi I'm Stephanie Stoll with region 6. Most of you will remember me as the one from Michigan with Saint Bernards, but I've been honored to have pulled many rescued dogs in many different weight classes over the years. I would like to be considered to serve as an IWPA board member for the next term. I have been appointed to the IWPA Board for the last two seasons, and have served as an elected board member in my earlier years of being an IWPA member. I feel I am able to bring new ideas and different opinions to our board. I have been involved with IWPA for 20 years attending numerous local pulls, several out of region pulls, and many Championships. I have also organized pulls, assisted with organizing pulls, and assisted with our region hosting Championships. I have also gotten my Judging certificate, been chief judge at local pulls, and also been elected for Championship judge in the past. I would love to continue to help this organization grow, and improve. Please consider me for a board member.

Thank You,
Stephanie

Hi I'm Shirley Webber, from Northern MI, region 6. I have been weight pulling since 1994. I began my career of IWPA weight pulling after my mom died and was looking for an activity to fill that void. I attended Kalkaska Winter-fest and entered my dog into the weight pull contest and was hooked from that day on. In the past I've been a board member several time, organized pull, hosted Championships, assisted with organizing of Championships, and have my judges certificate. Please consider me for the IWPA board. I feel that I can make a difference and have the ability to see both sides. I will take any concerns to the board that arises from our members.

Thanks,
Shirley

Hello IWPA Members,

I was excited to join the IWPA in Jan 2009 after weight pulling since 2004. The IWPA allowed me to expand my pulling opportunities. I am very disheartened at the recent lack of activity in Region 4, of which I am a member and have been for nearly 13 years. As such, I wish to become more active at the organizational level to try to promote and contribute to the organization as a whole. I recently volunteered to be Region 4 representative. I am always willing to help those interested in the sport to get started in it, to work with dogs to help them figure out what the sport is all about and to help their owners work with their dogs. I also hope to become a judging apprentice by the end of the year.

If voted in as a Board member, I will make myself available for questions and concerns, promptly respond to correspondence and do my best to promote the continuance of the IWPA.

Connie Meech
St. Louis, MO.

We here in Region 6 are proud to be hosting the 2022 IWPA Championships.

My name is Carol Gerke and I will be busy trying to organize a positive, fun filled event that we have planned to be held at Paterson Ice Center.

It will be almost the same as the previous Championships that we hosted here in Grand Rapids with the exception that snow competition will be on Saturday and wheels on Sunday.

We will have meals both Friday and Saturday nights at the rink.

We are calling the event "IWPA Championships, Back to the Roots 2022 "

Our charity will be the "Sled Wings" which is an adaptive hockey program for athletes with physical disabilities that would keep them from playing regular stand-up hockey.

We hope we will be seeing you there.

MY DOG

He is my other eyes that can see above the clouds;
 my other ears that hear above the winds.
 He is the part of me that can reach out into the sea.

He has told me more than a thousand times over that I am his reason for being;
 by the way he rests against my leg;
 by the way he thumps his tail at my smallest smile;
 by the way he shows his hurt when I leave without taking him.
 (I think it makes him sick with worry when he is not along to care for me).

When I am wrong, he is delighted to forgive.
 When I am angry, he clowns to make me smile.
 When I am happy, he is joy unbounded.
 When I am a fool, he ignores it.
 When I succeed, he brags.
 Without him, I am only another person.
 With him, I am all powerful.

He is loyalty itself.
 He has taught me the meaning of devotion.
 With him, I know a secret comfort and a private peace.
 He has brought me understanding where before I was ignorant.
 His head on my knee can heal my human hurts.
 His presence by my side is protection against my fears of dark and unknown things.
 He has promised to wait for me ... whenever ... wherever, in case I need him.
 And I expect I will, as I always have.
 He is just my dog.

Xylitol Follow-up, Still a Huge Danger to Dogs

By Sheryl Franklin

A musher friend reported that she went to give her dog Melatonin (reported as a good sleep aid for dogs) when her eye settled on the ingredients. This version had Xylitol. Many brands, especially those for dogs, do not contain this dangerous substance. However, it prompted me to write another article on Xylitol.

In 2016 I wrote an article for the newsletter about xylitol in some peanut butters, warning you that it can be fatal to your dogs. I wrote a follow up article in 2018 because it was appearing in more items, and then another article in 2019. Now it's in even more items (more than 700)! Xylitol is a sugar alcohol that is used as a sugar substitute in many human foods (look for the words 'sugar alcohol' on labels, if it's there, avoid it for dogs). But for dogs, xylitol poisoning is a major problem. Ingesting xylitol causes a rapid and massive insulin release in dogs, which will manifest itself outwardly to a pet owner as acute weakness, staggering, and vomiting. Within 15 to 20 minutes, they might even be comatose, and depending on the amount consumed, a dog can also experience liver failure from ingesting xylitol.

According to the Poison Pet Helpline, cases involving xylitol ingestion are increasing rapidly, doubling in five years. According to the veterinary toxicology experts at Pet Poison Helpline, this increase in products containing xylitol has resulted in a corresponding increase in the number of xylitol-related pet poisoning cases. Between 2015 and 2020, calls regarding xylitol poisoning increased 108 percent, and the biggest one-year increase was in 2019, when calls were up 47.2 percent from 2018. Interestingly, in 2020 xylitol poisoning calls to the Helpline were second only to regular chocolate poisoning calls.

The rest of this article talks about the products in which Xylitol can appear. It may look familiar, as it was in my previous article about Xylitol.

xylitol in Candies, Gum & Mints

If Candies, Gum & Mints gum are labeled as sugar-free, that should be a warning sign for xylitol, though various items can have vastly different amounts of xylitol.

I can't even do a quick list for the article as it is so extensive. Most recent list is here and they keep it up-to-date - <https://www.preventivevet.com/xylitol-products-toxic-for-dogs>

Some gums - like Spry - plainly advertise themselves as containing xylitol because it's good for your teeth and for diabetics. Stride, Trident, and Orbitz are other gums containing differing amounts of xylitol. It's critically important to know what kind of gum or candy was ingested, how much your pet has ingested, and how long it's been since he or she ingested it in order to appropriately treat the problem.

Most dogs hospitalized, were usually hospitalized for about 18 hours. Dextrose is typically administered as quickly as possible in order to bring the canine's blood sugar up. As long as liver health appears normal, once they regain the ability to regulate their blood sugar levels by themselves, dogs are weaned off the dextrose and eventually released.

xylitol in Chocolate

This is not an extensive list, but dogs shouldn't receive chocolate anyway. This makes it doubly dangerous.

xylitol in Peanut & Nut Butters

Some companies, such as Hank's have removed xylitol from their peanut and nut butters. The following companies products contain xylitol - No Cow® (formerly D's Naturals), Go Nuts, Co., Krush Nutrition, Nuts 'N More®, P28 Foods.

xylitol in Dental & Nasal: Toothpaste, Floss, Mouthwash & Rinses

While not usually containing the same levels of xylitol as gum, dental health products tend to use this sugar substitute because of its appealing, sweet taste and its teeth-strengthening, plaque-fighting properties.

The Pet Poison Helpline cites gum as the source of nearly 80% of cases involving xylitol. While gum manufacturers have the options of using other sugar substitutes, like erythritol and Stevia, xylitol is the only one experts know of that causes such adverse reactions in canines. Manufacturers of dental health products aren't facing the same scrutiny as the food industry, meaning their share of xylitol cases may increase in the coming years.

xylitol in Medications, Vitamins, Supplements & Oils

Used to be you could use human vitamins, especially kids' vitamins, for dogs. Whoa, no longer. Many have xylitol in them.

An extensive and updated list of products is here - <https://www.preventivevet.com/xylitol-products-toxic-for-dogs>

Xylitol in Cookies, Desserts, Mixes, Ice Cream & Yogurt

Because packaged xylitol can be bought in bulk at many food stores, baked foods are becoming a more common source of canine health emergencies. You might find some already-made baked goods containing xylitol at bakeries and specialty stores. And because cupcakes and cookies have a lot more sweetener in them than mouthwash, a pet that consumes a baked good packed with xylitol is in danger of facing a life-threatening situation.

You need to call your vet or the Pet Poison Helpline immediately. Give them as much information as you can. Depending on the severity, they may suggest feeding your dog syrup or honey - something sweet to help keep their blood sugar up temporarily while you drive to seek emergency help.

Xylitol in Sugar-free Groceries

Xylitol is found in trace amounts in many fruits and vegetables, but because it's occurring naturally and in such small amounts in these cases, it's hardly ever a problem for pets.

On the other hand, many grocery stores have started carrying sugar-free foods like ketchup, peanut butter, protein bars, pudding, and more that contain xylitol as one of their primary ingredients. There is a brand called Zapp! that manufactures condiments, sauces, and other groceries that are marketed primarily on their being made with xylitol. In this case, it's very clearly labeled, but in most other instances, you'll need to check the ingredients list on the label to know if something sugar-free is made with xylitol or some other substitute. And in some cases, products that are not labeled as sugar-free still contain xylitol. It is important to always carefully read the entire ingredient list of any food before giving it to your dog.

Xylitol in Lotions, Gels, and Deodorants

Xylitol has humectant properties. This means it can help a product retain moisture, which makes it perfect for products like this.

This is a relatively new development, meaning even many veterinarians aren't aware of the dangers of dogs digesting deodorants - at least when it comes to xylitol. As with everything on this list, it's best to keep such products in a cabinet or on a high shelf - completely out of reach of your four-legged friends.

Exofficio
Sol Cool clothing line (currently approx. 24 items)

Garneau

Xylitol in Too Many Things!

In doing this article I was alarmed by the explosion of products that contain xylitol. We must be vigilant to keep our dogs safe. Please be aware of these products and keep them out of reach of the dogs.
