FROM THE PRESIDENT Terry Reed

Hello IWPA Members,

I hope you all had a joyful Holiday Season. Whoever asked Santa for winter in Colorado, enough already, haven't seen temps above 20 for a week or more.

That means we are smack dab in the middle of winter so you know what that means. Election time!

In this newsletter you will find the letters from the candidates running for the board of directors. You will also be receiving your ballots soon in the mail. Remember Individual memberships receive one ballot and family memberships receive two ballots.

Also on the ballot will be the voting for Championship Judges. Please note that at the last board meeting the number of judges was changed from 10 to 12. This was done to attempt to get everything covered. The judges are not only responsible for judging each weight class, 2 per track. There is also a need for one in the holding area as well as for the drug testing area, if testing is done. That makes 6 of the 10 already occupied, and if an elected judge, or more than one, has dogs to pull the numbers are reduced more.

So watch for your ballot and vote for board members and championship judges. I would also recommend voting early. I know I can be as much of a procrastinator as anyone. If you set it aside for later you may forget. With some of the past elections the numbers have been so close every vote is valuable.

Hope you all have a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

Don't forget to vote.

Working together for a better IWPA.

Terry Reed

IWPA President 2014-2015

BOARD OF DIRECTORS NOMINATIONS

Sheryl Franklin – Region 11

My name is Sheryl Franklin, and I am officially running for the IWPA Board of Directors. I've been a member of the IWPA since 2007 and a judge for the last several years. Most of my time has been in Region 5, but I've recently moved to Region 7 and will be doing all I can to get activity going in my new region. I love working with people new to the sport and watching their dogs grow in the sport. I am currently an appointee to the Board, as well as Committee Chair for Animal Welfare. I'm also the webmaster for IWPA.net. I will continue working to get more people and dogs into the wonderful sport of weight pulling, and being an ambassador for IWPA.

I appreciate your consideration in voting for me for the Board of Directors.

Sheryl Franklin

Kendell Jones – Region

My name is Kendell Jones and I have been a judge and competitor with the IWPA and other weight pull organizations for several years. I have hosted many sanctioned pulls, practices and clinics at our facility and do my best to spread the word about weight pull as a training venue for handlers. We strive to promote safe, smart and fun training for all breeds. Outside of weight pull, I train and compete in a variety dog-related venues - including obedience, agility, and police/military canines (both protection and detection). I have always been an avid supporter of the IWPA, and I would like to continue to do so as a board member. I believe I could help the organization by improving the workflow of processes for hosting pulls, posting results and record keeping. I would like to work toward an online-based system for submitting sanctioning applications, results, and payments. I also strongly believe there are grey areas on the current rule book that need to be clarified for the sake of fairness, safety and professionalism of all hosts, participants and judges. I look forward to working with each and every one of you to continue to improve the IWPA for many successful seasons!

Susan Gallegher – Region 5

My name is Susan Gallagher. I have been a member of the IWPA and pulling dogs for over 10 years. This past year, I was appointed to the board of directors and would much like to continue representing my contingents in this capacity.

My husband and I live in Vermont, raising and loving Alaskan Malamutes. We started in weight pulling with our first rescue malamute Takani who desperately needed a job. Our start with him has led us down a trail of great competition with some fantastic dogs and friendships forged with many other people who love this sport. We have competed extensively in our region (Region 5) and also at IWPA Championships as well as other organizations. Our first choice in groups to pull in is the IWPA. We have been active and involved in the progression of this organization for more than 10 years. For this reason, I would truly like to be considered by the membership to be elected for a seat on the board of directors.

When sending in your vote, please vote for Susan Gallagher. I will do my best to represent my region and others who love this sport as I do.

Sean Hammell – Region 3

My name is Sean Hammell and I have been a member of the IWPA since the 2008-2009 season, have built a successful weight pull club that grows each year, hosted championships in 2013, and have been your grievance chair and general inquiry website contact for the IWPA the last 2 seasons. I have a great passion for the sport of weight pull, and believe the IWPA is a great organization to be a part of. However, I feel there is an opportunity to clarify and strengthen the rule set, and modernize the processes. If elected onto the IWPA board, I promise to do my best to streamline the pull process, and push for a complete review of the rule set, hoping for elimination of the ambiguity that currently exists. I will continue to make myself available for discussion with IWPA members, and will strive to improve the IWPA to best suit its members.

If anyone has any questions for me please don't hesitate to contact me at seanhammell@hotmail.com

With the spring and summer months coming quickly upon us, try these flea-be-gone treats.

- 3 tbsp. vegetable oil
- 1 tbsp. garlic powder (or less)
- 2 cups flour
- 1/2 cup wheat germ
- 1/2 cup brewer's yeast (refer to considerations below)
- 1 tsp. salt
- 1 cup chicken broth (

Stir the vegetable oil and garlic powder together in a large mixing bowl. In another bowl, mix the dry ingredients, and stir in 1 cup of chicken broth when mixture gets too dry. Mix thoroughly until you get a doughy consistency.

Roll dough onto floured surface to about 1/4 inch thick. Use knife to cut dough into squares, or use cookie cutters to make special shapes. Place cut dough onto large, ungreased baking sheet and bake at 350 degrees F for 20 to 225 minutes, or until edges are brown. Allow to cool 2 hours, then store in plastic bags or airtight containers.

Things to consider;

Using nutritional yeast instead of brewers yeast as brewers yeast can cause harmful bloat in bigger, deep chested dogs. Nutritional yeast is said to work every bit as good as the brewers yeast for repelling fleas, but much safer on the canine system, with more vitamins. As for the garlic, you may choose to use less. Garlic (raw) much like raw onion, can be toxic to dogs, so be VERY CAREFUL in how much you give them. This recipe calls for garlic POWDER and garlic POWDER is much less toxic than RAW. You can also put in some parsley to combat garlic breath. Also consider using LOW or NO SODIUM broth for a healthier alternative for young and/or aging dogs
