FROM THE PRESIDENT Terry Reed

Here it is November already. Along with all the dogs training and competition there is Holiday Preparation.

During this holiday season be sure to take extra precautions with you dogs. Things like chocolate, tree tinsel and a lot of other decorations can lead to big problems.

And then there is the male dog instinct to hike a leg on the tree. Especially real ones.

Enjoy your Holidays. And since I am not even close to PC. HAPPY THANKSGIVING.

Terry Reed
IWPA President

Together we can build a better IWPA

FROM THE BENCH OF THE JUDGES CHAIR

Terry Reed

I have decided to pick a rule out of the booklet each month to address. I think it will serve 2 purposes. Clarification and interpretation for judges to review. And information for members they may or may not be aware of.

This month it is from Section 5 C 8 and 9.

I have found there is some confusion or discrepancy with start weight and load increments.

Maximum start weights are established for each weight class in rule #8. These are maximum start weights. The actual start weight can be anywhere from the empty cart up to the maximum for the class.

Load increments and start weight are not required to coincide. Meaning if weight is added to a cart to achieve a start weight, that weight does not have to be equal to the increments set for the class.

Example. 80 pound class has maximum start weight of 600 pounds. Cart weighs 265 pounds. Weight increment decided on is 250 pounds. Handlers want to start as close to maximum as possible. So, 600 minus the 265 pound cart leaves 335 pounds. A 250 increment will fall short. Let's say the weight is 50 blocks. Adding 6 blocks instead of the increment of 250 will get within 35 pounds of maximum. That would be acceptable. If you happen to have regular weights, like from a weight set, you can add the 35 pounds or leave it as is.

I know this is long and drawn out. Hopefully I will get less wordy in the future.

As always if anyone, judge or member, has a question or concern about a rule do not hesitate to reach out to me.

Terry Reed
