FROM THE PRESIDENT Terry Reed

Hello IWPA,

Well it looks like the location for the 2015 IWPA Championships will be Region 9 in Northern Colorado. Check next month's Pulling Power for an official announcement and more details from Championship Chairperson Bob Sencenbaugh.

We are now one month in to the season and it looks like the weather is beginning to make a change. I don't know about where you may be but here in Colorado we are starting to get cooler mornings and it is starting to look like fall. It won't be long until the white stuff begins falling.

Remember elections will be here before you know it. If you have ever had a desire to experience the "other side" of the IWPA I would encourage you to submit a letter to Elections Chairperson Beverly Detwiler.

I hope you are all preparing for a successful season. Train hard and have fun.

Until next month,

Working together for a better IWPA

Terry Reed

IWPA President

From Region 2

I want to thank Sean and Patrick from leaving their country and coming down to ours for the Region 2 Season Opener. And to Jim Galli, for making that long drive from CA to be with us. I hope that every other region can have an opening pull in their area like ours.

We had several dogs pull their personal best this weekend. Congrats goes out to Jynx and Sean Hammell for highest percentage, three day combined. And I'm pretty proud to say that Stormie came away with most weight pulled that weekend. Now, couple that with great friends, good food, great stories, and it was an AWESOME time for everyone. Thanks to the Daymudes also, for allowing us all to converge on them. With a few separate donations and profits from the 3 day pull, we were able to send Donna Libby $190.00 to help with repairs after the tornado touched her. She has touched all of our lives and I only wish there was more we could have sent.
